Meeting Minutes

October 16th, 2008

Executives: Rachel Coe, Regie Sacdalan, Julie Johannessen, Jonathan Serion, Alec Whitford, Sandie Chen, Jeff Hitchcock (1st part)

Proxies: Jeff Hitchcock (Jon during 2nd part)

Members: None

- Upon entering, both Regie and Sandie got pelted with balls.
- Regie: Group called "CAPSI" (undergrad pharmacy club) wants to sell concession for one event on Oct 24 (just popcorn). Asking if they could split profits with us somehow.
 - First proposal: pay us for supplies and to rent the machine. We're willing to do 50-50%, but just on popcorn—floor manager or something must keep track of it at the event. Sandie will take care of scheduling people and Alec is the tech?
- Jeff H leaves the room!
 - Sandie and Jon S. must fight to be his proxy. One person must stand on the stool, another on the broken chair. Since we don't have a gladiator team, we're doing this right here, right now. AND GETTING PHOTOGRAPHIC EVIDENCE.
 - Conclusion: The battle is pitched and dangerous (and hilarious), but Rachel declares Jon the winner.
- Rachel: Beer gardens!
 - RHPS: They'll credit us for the 3 kegs, and we can return them.
 - Proctor's charging us $70 for two hours of cleaning for the rice. Who gets paid $35/hr?! We don't mind shouldering the price this time, but the new janitor should know in future not to try cleaning up all the rice in one night.

- Big Lebowski: Same prices as RHPS, plus $4 for white russians. Also we'll need two floor managers that night who aren't Regie or Jason. Bar needs 4 people taking orders
- Members still can't bring a friend, and members still have their separate line.
- Another person wants to be a junior. Conclusion: We should start training superjuniors!! They can hover around and take care of any extra work.
- Bad news: RocknRolla will not be screening in western Canada!!!! NOOOOOOOOOOOOO
- Outweek: Want to show a movie with us in February.
 - Either 1 screening on 1 night, or a full week. They can only do a full week if Rachel agrees to the film; consider how to split cost/profit with them.
- Vagina club wants 5-6-7 February, happily charged by us to give them premium space. We like this idea of getting paid!
 - (potential advertisement; "FILMSOC LOVES VAGINAS" with a photo of alec and regie giving the THUMBS UP. a+. we think this should be done.)
 - Sandie will be our little spy. Get more info from VC: find out how many people they expect to come, how they plan to advertise, how much they charge per ticket, how long they need the theatre for, will they have sets there, etc.
- cbc intl short film competition, 28 october
 - referred them to mass in buchanan, and they got a spot there. they're going to give us 7 tix, really wanted us involved. is anyone interested in hosting the event? "having a rep there who will benefit your club and get your name out, and watch over list of clubs attending." $200 door prize for the group with the highest showing.
- Sandie is falling asleep. Throw balls at her!!
- Re: AMS account, Alec should sign in at ams.ubc.ca.
- Computer: Jon doing that next week.

— next meeting: JOUSTING ON HORSES

— Regie recommends Chris and Hitchcock to be the horses, and Sandie and Rachel as jockeys. Sandie fears facing Rachel in a joust. Conclusion: You must unleash your inner Rachel instead.
